

THE Best OF SALT LAKE CITY

SPRING & SUMMER | 2022

At the Hilton SLC Center we take pride in being local members of our community. We think Salt Lake City has so much to offer and we want you to love it like we do!

We curated this list of our favorite dining establishments, entertainment, and local attractions for you - all just a short distance from the hotel. Please browse at your leisure or use the table of contents below to jump to what intrigues you the most. We can't wait for you to experience Salt Lake City the way we do.

Dining

Attractions

Entertainment

DINING

Pago

Pago offers seasonal, ingredient driven cuisine, with an ever-changing menu that reflects the seasons. Hand crafted food is matched with a curated beverage program centered on an award winning natural wine list.

*** insert team knowledge ***

pagoslc.com

White Horse Spirits & Kitchen

This Modern American Brasserie serves everything from bar snacks to shared plates, fresh oysters to sandwiches and steaks. We love White Horse because the cocktails are top notch, and they have one of the best French onion soups in the city!

whitehorseslc.com

Red Rock Brewing Company

This brewery has been a staple in SLC for more than 25 years and is located just down the avenue from our hotel. Expect a wide variety of good beer and old world pup faire. We love their refreshing White Rainbow IPA - a summer selection created specifically for Pride.

redrockbrewing.com

Caffé Molise

Italian offerings in a brand new redesigned historical building. Featuring fresh cuisine with a focus on regional specialties and local ingredients. Enjoy live jazz on Friday evenings with the John Flander's Trio.

caffemolise.com

London Belle

Named after one of 19th century Utah's most infamous madams, this boudoir style supper club offers creative cocktails and an interesting menu. We think it's a great place to meet for a drink and a nosh (and sometimes dancing!)

londonbelleslc.com

— ATTRACTIONS —

The Leonardo

The best immersive experiences in Salt Lake City. Visit through August to see one of their three immersive exhibitions, including Van Gogh 306, From Monet to Kandinsky, and Italian Renaissance. Add some booze to your art with an Immersive Libations class, featuring Sommelier Jim Santangelo from the Wine Academy of Utah.

theleonardo.org

City Brew Tours

"You Drink, We Drive!" Salt Lake City has a rich history of craft breweries and City Brew Tours can show you some of their favorites. Book a private or public tour complete with transportation, behind-the-scenes knowledge, guided meal pairing, and of course samples of up to 16 beer styles. This experience just may challenge your preconceived notions about Salt Lake City!

citybrewtours.com

Family History Library & Archives

Do you know where you come from? This genealogical archive is home to millions of records and research experts who can help you discover your history. Find a sense of belonging in Salt Lake City by exploring your family tree. A little prep work can help you make the most of your visit - follow the link to learn how.

familysearch.org

Natural History Museum of Utah

Who doesn't love dino bones? One of the many exhibits available, "Past Worlds" features dozens of skeletal reconstructions including the world's largest display of horned dinosaur skulls. Visit before mid-August to experience "The Nature of Color", an immersive journey exploring our world through color.

nhmu.utah.edu

ENTERTAINMENT

The Eccles Theater

Home of Broadway at the Eccles, featuring premiere Broadway touring shows. Catch the award winning HadesTown in August, and the beloved classic Disney's The Lion King starting in September.

saltlakecountyarts.org

The Galivan Center

A people place where downtown visitors can enjoy good food, live entertainment, and community events. Unwind with a free yoga class every Monday & Wednesday evening, or attend one of the Twilight Concert Series!

thegalivancenter.com

Clark Planetarium

If you're into science and nature you can take a break from the heat to catch one of the many shows available in the Hansen Dome Theater or IMAX Theater, currently featuring cosmic light shows on the weekend. Just a few stops away on the free light rail!

slco.org

Abravanel Hall

An artistic and architectural icon, this symphony hall is home to the Utah Symphony and a towering Chihuly original glass sculpture. Featuring Jurassic World in Concert on 8.12.22 or Mozart's Horn Concerto on 9.9.22

saltlakecountyarts.org

Vivint Arena

Home of the Utah Jazz and Salt Lake City's premier concert events. Through the end of the summer you can see Brandi Carlisle, UFC's Usman V Edwards 2, Kendrick Lamar, The Killers, and more!

vivintarena.com

The Broadway

Home of the Salt Lake Film Society, you can always watch something interesting at this independent cinema. We love getting a latte or a sophisticated snack at the café and watching gripping docs, indie films, or old classics.

slfs.org